

2026 Director Biographies

Below you will find the biographies of our 2026 6-Week Directors and Camp Directors. We asked each of them the following questions: (1) Where you're from (city) ; (2) What church do you go to; (3) Where do/did you go to school; (4) What are you studying and future career goals, or what is your current job; (5) How long you've been going to camp (6) Why you love MDSC or what makes MDSC special to you...

6-WEEK CORE STAFF DIRECTORS

Mr. Pano Xenos, Program Director

Pano Xenos is from St. Clair Shores and attends Assumption Greek Orthodox Church. He is currently studying Finance and Economics at Michigan State University and plans to pursue a future career in finance. Pano has been attending MDSC since 2018 and says camp is where some of his best memories, and closest friendships, were made. Whether it's late-night laughs, team competitions, or meeting new campers every summer, MDSC is always the highlight of his year!

Ms. Ellianna Poulos, Program Director

From Plymouth, Ellianna is currently studying Neuroscience with a minor in Entrepreneurship and Innovation and hopes to pursue a future career in Optometry. They have been part of the MDSC family for 5 years and say camp has truly become a second home. From the very beginning, they felt welcomed by the incredible camp community and quickly fell in love with everything MDSC has to offer. For them, what makes MDSC so special is the opportunity to build lifelong friendships, create unforgettable memories, and grow together in faith each summer.

Mr. Anthony Gaggos, Waterfront Director

From Beverly Hills, Anthony Gaggos attends St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and studies at the Indiana University Kelley School of Business. He is majoring in Finance and Professional Sales with a minor through the Jacobs School of Music and is interested in pursuing a career in Private Wealth Management. Anthony has been part of the MDSC family for 10 years and says camp has always been his safe place — somewhere he can reset, grow, and reconnect with what matters most. Through every stage of life, MDSC has been a constant source of friendship, faith, and support. For Anthony, camp is so much more than just a summer experience — it's a lifelong community that has shaped who he is and given him relationships that will last forever."

Ms. Eve Feles, Assistant Waterfront Director

From Birmingham, Eve attends St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and is currently a freshman at Washington University in St. Louis. She is studying Economics/Strategy and Public Health with hopes of becoming a Global Health Economist in the future. Eve has been part of the MDSC family for 8 years and loves the camp community for its strong sense of fellowship, faith, and friendship. She says MDSC is a place where campers and staff can unplug from the stress of everyday life, grow closer to God, and build friendships that quickly become lifelong family.

Ms. Kalli McCullough, Arts & Crafts Director

Hailing from Toledo, Kalli McCullough attends Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Cathedral and studies biology at The Ohio State University. She hopes to one day work in medicine as a physician's assistant. Kalli loves MDSC because of the incredible friendships, nonstop fun, and the welcoming camp spirit that makes everyone feel at home from the moment they arrive.

Mr. Michael Roustemis, Media Director

From Grosse Pointe, Michael is part of the Assumption Greek Orthodox Church and studies photography at College for Creative Studies. He hopes to turn his passion into a career in automotive photography. Michael has been part of the MDSC family for eleven summers and says camp has always been his constant, a place filled with friendship, laughter, and people who feel like family. No matter what changes during the year, he knows MDSC will always be waiting for him each summer!

Ms. Flora Kokalas, Media Director

From Rochester, Flora attends St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and studies Communications and Media at University of Michigan. She hopes to pursue a future career in Marketing and Advertising. Flora has been part of the MDSC family for 10 years and says camp truly feels like a second home. Growing up at MDSC has given her lifelong friendships, unforgettable memories, and a stronger connection to her faith. She loves that camp is a place where everyone feels welcomed, supported, and inspired to grow into the best version of themselves.

Ms. Justine Perakis, Health Director

From Troy, Justine attends St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and is studying Biomolecular Science at the University of Michigan, with a goal of applying to medical school. This will be Justine's 11th year at camp. She shared that "I love MDSC because every time I go there, I feel renewed in my faith. IT creates an environment where everybody can laugh, make new friends, and become closer with God. This camp has given me so many experiences that shape the way I grow, and has turned me in to the person I am today."

WEEKLY CAMP DIRECTORS

Ms. Katina Cloutier (Week Zero)

Katina lives in Huntington Woods with her husband Aaron and daughters Sophia and Maria. She is a lifelong member of St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church in Troy. Katina works as a program manager, while also volunteering her time on the MDSC Board, the St. Nicholas Parish Council and with FOCUS Detroit. Her journey with MDSC started in the 1970s as a camper and counselor before joining the Board in 2013. Katina shared that she "loves MDSC for the friendships that were formed. My daughter's godparents are from my camp days, my goddaughter's mother and I formed a lasting friendship in 1980 and I still get together with my camp friends often. All of these friendships are rooted in our Orthodox faith and bound by a very special place we call Greek Camp"

Ms. Katina Gorman (Week 1)

From Troy, Katina attends St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church and works as an attorney. Her MDSC journey began as a camper at just seven years old before later serving on staff as a Lifeguard and Waterfront Director for several summers. In fact, Katina and Ms. Anna once served together as Waterfront Directors — and now they're reunited as Week 1 Directors! For Katina, MDSC has always been a place filled with faith, friendship, and unforgettable memories. It's where she formed lifelong friendships, met future koumbari, and felt closest to God. Now, seeing her own children attend camp makes MDSC even more meaningful, and she is excited to watch the magic of camp continue into the next generation.

Ms. Anna McCullough (Week 1 & 2)

Anna is from Dayton (OH) and attends the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church. She has worked as a licensed massage therapist for 18 years. Anna first attended camp in the 1990s as a camper, and returned every summer after that as a camper, lifeguard and waterfront director. She returned to camp a few summers ago when her daughter became a camper, and looks forward to serving MDSC for many years to come. Anna shared that "MDSC is such a unique and special place that allows us to have a yearly reset from our busy lives, all while immersing ourselves in our faith and having SO much fun while building lifelong friendships. MDSC is a hidden treasure of our diocese and is a huge blessing to all who get to experience it!".

Ms. Dionna Damaskos (Weeks 2 & 5)

From St. Clair Shores, Dionna Damaskos attends Assumption Greek Orthodox Church and works as a High School/Post-High School Special Education Teacher. Her MDSC journey began when she was just seven years old attending camp in Rose City — and she hasn't stopped since! Over the years, Dionna has served as a Camper, CIT, Counselor, Arts & Crafts Director, Program Director, Board of Trustees member, and now Director for Weeks 2 and 5. To Dionna, MDSC is more than just camp — it's home. It's the place where friendships become family, faith grows stronger, and unforgettable memories are made around every corner. Some of her favorite memories came while serving on staff, experiences that inspired her passion for working with young people and helped lead her to becoming a teacher. She feels incredibly blessed to give back to a place that has given her so much throughout her life.

Mr. Kirk Moundros (Week 3)

Kirk grew up in Farmington Hills, and now lives in DeWitt (MI) where he attends Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church in Lansing (MI). He graduated from the University of Michigan with a Mechanical Engineering degree and then received a Master's in Education. Kirk is a math teacher in the Dewitt Public Schools. This will be his 6th year at MDSC and he shared that "MDSC provides kids an opportunity to have fun while building relationships with others in the Greek community and growing closer to God".

Mr. Ronnie Smith (Week 3)

Ronnie is originally from Livonia but now lives in Grand Rapids (MI). He grew up at the St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church in Troy. Ronnie attended Michigan State University and Cooley Law School, and is currently working as an executive recruiter. He first attended MDSC in 1994 as a Junior Boy and returned every summer as a camper before serving as a CIT, Counselor, Media Director and Assistant Director. Ronnie shared that he is "looking forward to reliving old traditions and creating new ones and helping out the camp that has provided me so many memories and lifelong friends".

Ms. Jamie Gialanella (Week 4)

Jamie grew up in West Bloomfield, going to St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church. She is a graduate of Oakland University, where she studied Business. Currently, she assists dentists in their retirement plans by transitioning their dental practices. Jamie is married with three children, lives in Rochester, and attends St. Mark Orthodox Church. Her first summer at camp was 1986 when her family attended a family weekend. Shortly after that she began attending as Junior Girl. After several summers of being a camper during 3rd and 4th weeks, she became a CIT, counselor, and Program Director (1999 and 2000). Camp has always had a special place in her heart. It gave her the opportunity to become friends with other Orthodox Christians and those relationships continue to grow today! Jamie is looking forward to returning to camp this summer with my three children, cousins and long-time camp friends. She can't wait to share MDSC with them and to co-Direct 4th week with George Cassis. Jamie is looking forward to an amazing camp season!

Mr. George Cassis (Week 4)

George Cassis, is an MDSC alumna originally from Grand Rapids and currently working as an elementary school teacher in Baltimore, MD. As both a camper and counselor, his camp journey began as a "6th Weeker" — yes, back when there really was a Week 6! Later, he attended Weeks 4 and 5 and eventually served as Program Director in 2002 and again in 2004. After taking a break from camp, he returned a few summers ago as a Director. This summer, he's excited to serve as one of the Directors for Week 4. He's incredibly thankful for MDSC and the lifelong friendships and memories it has given him over the years.

Ms. Kitty Vomvolakis (Week 5)

Originally from Flint and now living in Ferndale, Kitty attends St. George Greek Orthodox Church and works as a Client Relationship & Growth Director and Associate Financial Advisor at Charter Wealth Strategies. With 34 years connected to MDSC, Kitty has experienced camp through many roles including Camper, CIT, Counselor, and Arts & Crafts Director. Her long history with camp reflects a deep love for the MDSC community and its lasting impact over generations. To Kitty, MDSC is where friends become family, where the noise of the outside world fades away, and where campers and staff can truly connect with God and one another. It's the kind of place that leaves a lifelong mark on everyone who experiences it.
